

The Todd K. Larsen ISL Coach of the Year Award

ISL coaches spend a fast-paced 10 weeks dedicating their time and energy to our swimmers and families. In addition to coaching swim strokes, swim and race technique, and strategy, these coaches are role models of hard work and good character.

If you would like to nominate your team's coach for the Todd K. Larsen Coach of the Year Award please send a letter outlining your coach's qualities to the ISL Executive Board for consideration. If multiple letters are being sent from your team, please compile and send as one submission.

The award honors the memory of Todd K. Larsen, a former ISL Coach of the Year.

Past ISL honorees have included:

Ken Dory (GT) – 2005
Anne Marquand (TRH) – 2006
